Weather Indications. Washington, Aug. 17.—Forecast until 8 p. im. Saturday: For Kansas—Fair; southerly winds becoming variable.

Ir Cleveland took the tariff bill along with him we should hate to pay the excess baggage charges.

THE salvation of Texas was narrowly averted by the restoration of harmony among the state Democrats.

IF Governor Waite should learn to ride a wheel, it wouldn't bother him at all to take a header for he could keep right on.

THE New York constitutional convention committee evidently feared if woman suffrage were submitted to a vote in that state it would carry. As however, as Secretary Osborn's name usual New Yorkers overestimated their own intelligence.

In spite of some fighty remarks Gov. Matthews has a long head about other things. He promptly suppressed a resolution in the Indiana convention indorsing him for the Democratic nomination lyin'—as all political speakers should. for the presidency.

AFTER a bliter struggle the Cleveland Democrats of Texas, voted down free Dr. Newton of Ottawa Has a Sure Cure silver coinage. This is significant as being the only Democratic convention this year which has been consistent and with one exception, the only one where to this paper says: the Cleveland Democrats stood any show

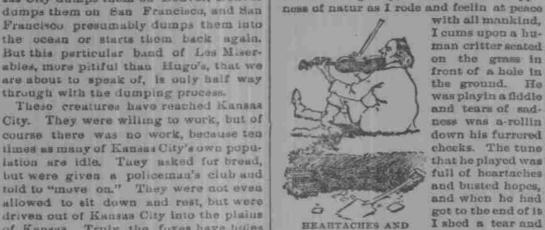

Tue Populist papers in the Seventh district are continually referring to Chester L Long, as Breckinridge Long. These velled references to something against Mr. Long's moral character are exceelingly cowardly. If these Populist editors know anything against Mr. Long why don't they publish it. If they cents. This is the price of the greatest do not, these allusions are contemptible and worse than cowardly. If a cam- ed by W. R.
